PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, those who teach the oncoming generations of our citizens are performing an indispensable and important work for the public benefit; and

WHEREAS, we can improve and strengthen the influence of our teachers for the general good by giving some public recognition and appreciation of their important and useful functions in promoting the general welfare and aiding in the grand objective of individual and racial development;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, M Q SHARPE, Governor of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim and declare the period of April 8 to April 14, 1945, as

and suggest that our people commence to give careful consideration of the position and needs of our teachers as individuals and as public servants doing an important work for the benefit of all; and I do urge all our citizens during that time to consider and practice appropriate ways and means of expressing our appreciation to our teachers in all schools for their public-spirited work, and to give them our encouragement by visiting their schools and classes and cooperating with them always for the production of the best grade of citizenship for our country. I would recommend to all student bodies and organizations including the Young Citizens League that they put on some kind of appropriate [illegible] during Teacher Appreciation Week.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, this 15th day of February, 1945.

M Q SHARPE
